We welcome back Viv McLean to give our first concert of our new season and celebrate our return to live music making. This performance will be twenty years after Viv first performed for us. He was due to perform for us in our cancelled 2020-2021 season and has performed many times in Amersham as a soloist and as a member of an ensemble, including playing with Lawrence Power, the viola player and most recently with the Adderbury Ensemble

Viv is a highly accomplished and experienced pianist and since winning First Prize at the Maria Canals Piano Competition in Barcelona in 2002 he has performed in all the major venues in the UK as well as throughout Europe, Japan, Australia and the USA. Viv's concerto work includes appearances with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, Philharmonia Orchestra, London Philharmonic Orchestra, Halle Orchestra and many other orchestras.

Viv has collaborated with musicians such as Natalie Clein, Marianne Thorsen, Daniel Hope, Adrian Brendel, Lawrence Power, Mary Bevan, David Le Page, Matthew Sharp, Guy Johnston and many others.

Viv made his BBC Radio 3 recital debut through the BBC Radio 3 Young Artists Forum scheme and has also recorded for Classic FM, WDR Radio in Germany, Radio France, ABC Radio in Australia, NRK Radio in Norway and for the Sky Arts television channel. His commercial releases have included recordings for Sony, Naxos, Nimbus, RPO Records, ICSM Records, Harmony & Imagination Records and his most recent albums are a Chopin recital and a selection of live recordings for Stone Records.

We are delighted to return to giving Live Concerts and thank you all for your support.
